MOVE

an activity that uses a preschooler’s natural desire to move to help them learn

1. JUMP UP!

WHAT YOU NEED: No supplies needed

WHAT YOU DO:

DURING THE ACTIVITY: Gather all of the children in your activity area. Explain to the children that you will call out different things they might love and give them an action to perform if they do. Examples are in the dialogue below.

WHAT YOU SAY:

DURING THE ACTIVITY: “Friends, come over here with me. We all like different things. Some of us love chocolate ice cream and some love vanilla. I’m going to call out something you might love along with an action. If you love it, just follow the directions. Here’s an example: If you love sunshine, jump up and down. Who loves sunshine? Awesome jumping! Okay, ready for the next one?”

- “If you love apples, pretend to take a big bite!
- If you love popsicles, clap your hands.
- If you love ice cream, stomp your feet.
- If you love building things, wave your hands.
- If you love riding your bike, march with me.
- If you love to paint, paint in the air.
- If you love to play outside, jog in place.
- If you love goldfish, swim like a fish.
- If you love the color blue, raise your hands in the air.
- If you love to sing, sing ‘la la la la!’”

AFTER THE ACTIVITY: “That was fun! We can love sunshine and the color blue. There are lots and lots of things in this great big world God made for us to love. In large group today, we’ll hear about the most special thing God ever made! I can’t wait for you to hear!”

TRANSITION: Move to Worship and Story by calling out more examples like those above. More options:

- If you love music, dance!
- If you love mornings, yawn and stretch.
- If you love jumping, jump, jump, jump.
- If you love your friends, give a high five.
- If you love pigs, say, “oink, oink.”
- If you love fruit punch, pretend to take a big gulp.
- If you love your scooter, show me how you ride it.
